

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
SAN ANTONIO DIVISION

David Lopez-Guzman,

Petitioner,

v.

No. 5:20-cv-00224-XR-RBF

Daniel Bible, Field Office Director, Immigration and Customs (ICE), Enforcement and Removal Operations, in his official capacity; Raymundo Castro, Warden, South Texas Detention Complex, in his official capacity; William P. Barr, Attorney General, in his official capacity; and Chad Wolf, Acting Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security,

Respondents.

ORDER

The Court enters the following Order:

1. Notwithstanding any prior decisions rendered by the immigration court regarding bond, Respondents shall, within ten (10) days of the date of this order, provide Mr. Lopez-Guzman with a new, de novo individualized bond hearing before an immigration judge, weighing all appropriate factors. The parties may submit evidence and present arguments at the bond hearing. The immigration judge shall consider the evidence and arguments, consistent with Matter of Guerra, I. & N. Dec. 37, 40 (BIA 2006). The immigration judge shall articulate a complete, de novo decision concerning bond.

2. This action shall be and hereby is dismissed with prejudice, with each party to bear its own costs and/or attorney's fees;

3. Nothing in this Order or the Stipulation between the parties shall be construed as a concession of any rights or arguments by any Respondent or Petitioner; nor shall they be construed to require Respondents to provide additional bond hearings to any other alien in similar or dissimilar circumstances, nor shall this Order or the Stipulation undermine any party's litigation position in any other case in any federal or immigration court.

SIGNED this 15th day of July, 2020.
